As required by law Amica Delphina is in possession of a guarantee to refund your payments and, if transport is included in the package, to guarantee your repatriation in case of unexpected insolvency conditions.

Essential/Obligatory rights under Directive (EU) 2015/2302
1. The traveller will receive the main pre-contractual information about the package before defining the tourist package contract. The information is indicated in the following points and in the General Conditions of Contract on the www.delphina.it website. Information regarding descriptions of the destination, accommodation facilities and services is available in the Delphina catalogue and on the www.delphina.it website.
2. Amica Delphina from is responsible for the correct execution of the services provided for in the tourist package contract.
3. As part of the travel documents the traveller will receive an emergency telephone number and a contact through whom to communicate with the organizer or travel agent.
4. The traveller has the right to transfer the tourist package to another person, subject to obligatory written notice not less than 7 days from the date of departure and with payment of expenses and other eventual additional costs incurred by the organizer as a result of the transfer of the tourist package contract.
5. Prices may be increased only if the contract expressly requires it and only if specific costs increase (e.g. fuel, rights and taxes relating to air transport, landing rights, disembarkation or embarkation in ports and airports) and in any case no later than 20 days from the start of the package. If the price increase is more than 8% of the total package price, the traveller may decide to terminate the contract. When the organizer reserves the right to increase the price of the package, the traveller is entitled by contract to a price reduction if the related costs decrease.
6. The traveller has the right of withdrawal without penalty and with full reimbursement of the payments made if a considerable element of the package (other than the price) is changed substantially. If before the start of the package booked the professional responsible cancels it, the traveller has the right to be reimbursed and, as the case may be, a reasonable indemnity.
7. In extraordinary circumstances involving the destination which may result in substantial limitations in the enjoyment of the package or transport or if there are serious safety problems at the place of destination that may affect the package, the traveller may, before the start of the package, terminate the contract without penalties with full reimbursement of the payments made but without the right to other indemnities.
8. The traveller is always entitled, before the start of the package, to terminate the contract upon payment of the cancellation penalties provided for in the package travel contract and on the www.delphina.it website (cancellation penalties section).
9. In the event that substantial services cannot be provided after the start of the package, valid alternative solutions shall be offered to the traveller at no additional cost. The traveller can terminate the contract without termination costs if the significant services are not guaranteed as per contract causing a substantial change. In case of inadequate or incorrect execution of the booked tourist services, the traveller has the right to an adequate price reduction and fair compensation for any eventual damage suffered according to international conventions.

TAILOMADE TOURIST PACKAGES WITH AMICA DELPHINA TOUR OPERATOR

Standard information form for tourist package contracts.
When booking an Amica Delphina tourist package from Delphina S.p.A. you will automatically benefit from all EU travel package rights. The collection of combined tourist services that we offer is a tourist package in accordance with Legislative Decree 62/2000 implementing European Directive 90/314 EC. 62. Amica Delphina from Delphina S.p.A. - based in Palau, loc. Cala di Lepre - is responsible for the correct implementation of the booked package, as required by law. Amica Delphina is in possession of a guarantee to refund your payments and, if transport is included in the package, to guarantee your repatriation in case of unexpected insolvency conditions.

Essential Consumer Rights under Directive (EU) 2015/2302
1. The traveller will receive the main pre-contractual information about the package before defining the contract with the organiser or trader. 2. At least one of the components of the package will be the subject of Contract on the www.delphina.it website. Information regarding descriptions of the destination, accommodation facilities and services is available in the Delphina catalogue and on the www.delphina.it website.
3. Amica Delphina is responsible for the correct execution of the services provided for in the tourist package contract.
4. The tourist is informed about documents the traveller will receive an emergency telephone number and a contact through which to communicate with the organiser or travel agent.
4. The traveller has the right to transfer the tourist package to another person, subject to obligatory written notice to the organiser, at least 7 days before the start of the package, and subject to the payment of additional costs incurred by the organiser as a result of the transfer of the tourist package contract.
5. Prices may be increased only if the contract expressly requires it and only if specific costs increase (e.g. fuel costs or airport taxes) are provided for in the contract. Prices may be increased no later than twenty days prior to the case no later than 20 days from the start of the package. If the price increase is more than 8% of the total package price, the traveller may decide to terminate the contract. When the organizer reserves the right to increase the price of the package, the traveller is entitled by contract to a price reduction if the related costs decrease.
6. The traveller has the right of withdrawal without penalty and full reimbursement of the payments made if a considerable element of the package (other than the price) is changed substantially. If before the start of the package booked the professional responsible cancels it, the traveller has the right to be reimbursed and to claim for damages, if applicable.
7. In extraordinary circumstances involving the destination which may result in substantial limitations to the enjoyment of the package or transport or if there are serious safety problems at the place of destination which affect the package, the traveller may decline the offer, terminate the contract of the package, terminate the contract without
penalties with full reimbursement of the payments made but without the right to other indemnities.
8. If the organizer or the retailer is unable to provide the agreed services or propose adjustments to contract of the cancellation penalties provided for in the package travel contract and on the www.delphina.it website.
9. Consumers can cancel
10. In the event that services cannot be provided after the start of the package, valid alternative solutions shall be offered to the traveller at no additional cost. The traveller can terminate the contract without paying any fees if the significant services are not guaranteed as per contract causing a substantial change. In case of inadequate or incorrect execution of the booked tourist services, the traveller has the right to a proportionate price reduction and fair compensation for any exercise damage suffered according to international conventions.
10. The organizer will provide adequate assistance for the traveller in difficulty without delay.
11. If the organizer or retailer is unable to reimburse payments made or provide the services, the payments will be refunded. If the organizer or seller becomes insolvent after the start of the package and if transport is included in the package, repatriation is guaranteed.
12. The traveller can contact the local consumer protection with Garanzia Viaggi in case of insolvency. The traveller can contact the Fund or if necessary the relevant competent authority. The AGCM Competition and Market Authority in Rome via L. e ROME, tel. +39 06 85821 If the necessary services are denied due to the insolvency of the organizer or seller.

TAILORMADE TOURIST PACKAGES WITH AMICA DELPHINA TOUR OPERATOR

Standard information form for tourist package contracts.
When booking an Amica Delphina tourist package from Delphina S.p.A. you will automatically benefit from all EU travel package rights. The collection of combined tourist services that we offer is a tourist package based on Directive (EU) 2015/2302 implemented through Legislative Decree 21/05/2018 n. 62. Amica Delphina from Delphina S.p.A - based in Palau, loc. Cala di Lepre - is responsible for the correct implementation of the booked package. As regards travel via Amica Delphina is in possession of a guarantee to refund your payments and, if transport is included in the package, to guarantee your repatriation in case of unexpected insolvency conditions.

Essential/Obligatory rights under Directive (EU) 2015/2302
1. The traveller will receive the main pre-contractual information about the package before defining the tourist package contract. The information is indicated in the following points and in the General Conditions of Contract on the www.delphina.it website. Information regarding descriptions of the destination, accommodation facilities and services is available in the Delphina catalogue and on the www.delphina.it website.
2. Amica Delphina from is responsible for the correct execution of the services provided for in the tourist package contract.
3. As part of the travel documents the traveller will receive an emergency telephone number and a contact through whom to communicate with the organizer or travel agent.
4. The traveller has the right to transfer the tourist package to another person, subject to obligatory written notification to the organizer or travel agent within a reasonable time, complaints, expenses and other eventual additional costs incurred by the organizer as a result of the transfer of the tourist package contract.
5. Prices may be increased only if the contract expressly requires it and only if specific costs increase (e.g. fuel, rights and taxes relating to air transport, landing rights, disembarkation or embarkation in ports and airports) and in any case no later than 20 days from the start of the package. If the price increase is more than 8% of the total package price, the traveller may decide to terminate the contract. When the organizer reserves the right to increase the price of the package, the traveller is entitled by contract to a price reduction if the related costs decrease.
6. The traveller has the right of withdrawal without penalty and with full reimbursement of the payments made if a considerable element of the package contract has not the price) is changed substantially. If before the start of the package booked the professional responsible cancels it, the traveller has the right to be reimbursed and, if applicable, to a compensation for damages.
7. In extraordinary circumstances involving the destination which may result in substantial limitations in the enjoyment of the package or transport or if there are serious safety problems at the place of destination that may affect the package, the traveller may, before the start of the package, terminate the contract without penalties with full reimbursement of the payments made but without the right to other indemnities.
8. The traveller is always entitled, before the start of the package, to terminate the contract upon payment of the cancellation penalties provided for in the tourist package contract and on the www.delphina.it website
(cancellation penalties section).
9. Unless other substantial services cannot be provided after the start of the package, valid alternative services shall be offered to the traveller at no additional cost. The traveller can terminate the contract without terminate costs if the significant services are not guaranteed as per contract causing a substantial change. In case of inadequate or incorrect execution of the booked tourist services, the traveller has the right to an adequate price reduction and fair compensation for any eventual damage suffered according to international conventions.
10. The organizer will provide adequate assistance for the traveller in difficulty without delay.
11. In case of insolvency on the part of the organizer (or in any of the sellers member states) payments will be refunded. If the organizer or seller becomes insolvent after the start of the package and if transport is included in the package, repatriation is guaranteed.

4. The traveller has the right to transfer the tourist package to another person, subject to obligatory written notice not less than 7 days from the date of departure and with payment of expenses and other eventual additional costs incurred by the organizer as a result of the transfer of the tourist package contract.
5. Arica Delphina from may increase the price of the package only if the costs of the transport (e.g. fuel, rights and taxes relating to air transport, landing rights, disembarkation or embarkation in ports and airports) and in any case no later than 20 days from the start of the package. If the price increase is more than 8% of the total package price, the traveller may decide to terminate the contract. When the organizer reserves the right to increase the price of the package, the traveller is entitled by contract to a price reduction if the relevant cost decreases.
6. The traveller has the right of withdrawal without penalty and with full reimbursement of the payments made if a considerable element of the package (other than the price) is changed substantially. If before the start of the package the organizer cancels the package, the traveller has the right to be reimbursed and, as the case may be, a reasonable indemnity.
7. In extraordinary circumstances involving the destination which may result in substantial limitations in the enjoyment of the package or transport or if there are serious safety problems at the place of destination that may affect the package, the traveller may, before the start of the package, terminate the contract without paying penalties with full reimbursement of the payments made but without the right to other indemnities.
8. The traveller is always entitled, before the start of the package, to terminate the contract upon payment of the cancellation penalties provided for in the package tourist contract and on the www.delphina.it website
(information penalties section).
9. In the event that substantial services cannot be provided after the start of the package, valid alternative solutions shall be offered to the traveller at no additional cost. The traveller can terminate the contract without termination costs if the significant services are not guaranteed and if the organizer does not solve the problem.
10. Further, in case of inadequate or incorrect execution of the booked tourist services, the traveller has the rights to an adequate price reduction and for compensation for any eventual damage suffered according to international conventions.
11. The organizer will provide adequate assistance for the traveller in difficulty without delay.
12. In case of insolvency on the part of the organizer (or in any of the seller's member states) reimbursement of the payments made and, if transport is included in the contract after the start of the package and if transport is included in the package, repatriation is guaranteed.
